ABSTRACT

This annotated bibliography has been compiled to assist personnel in the selection of multiethnic media for schools. The bibliography includes sections entitled "Asian Americans," "Jewish Americans," "Mexican Americans," "Native Americans," "Puerto Rican Americans," "Other Hyphenated Americans," and "All Americans (Multiethnic)." The entries for the major ethnic groups are listed alphabetically under the following basic headings: Heritage; In America; Art, Literature, Music, Customs; Biography, Fiction, Sources, and Resources. The entries are annotated except in cases where the title is self-explanatory, and addresses are listed for publishers which are not readily found. Nonprint media is marked by an asterisk for easy identification, and a grade level is indicated at the end of each entry with the exception of source and resource material. (Author/RB)

FOREWORD

This bibliography has been compiled to assist personnel in the selection of multiethnic media for schools. It is a complementary volume to previously published bibliographies. Negroes In American Life, 1968; Negroes In American Life, Supplement 1969; Negroes In American Life (nonprint media), 1971; and The Black Story, 1969.

FORMAT

A section is given to each of the major ethnic groups with the exception of Black Americans. A section on other hyphenated Americans provides information on varied ethnic groups; and the multiethnic section deals with materials which include more than one ethnic group.

The entries for the major ethnic groups are listed alphabetically under the following basic headings: Heritage; In American; Art, Literature, Music, Customs; Biography, Fiction, Sources and Resources. Entries are annotated except in some cases where the title is self explanatory. Addresses are listed for publishers which are not readily accessible. Nonprint media is marked by an asterisk (*) for easy identification. A grade level is indicated at the end of each entry with the exception of source and resource material.
